The True Issue

The Democracy with characteristic trickery are laboring hard to draw the Republican party from the true issue, and to prejudice the minds of the people from the truth. by such arguments as the following. The 'negroes are to sit as jurors,' 'have the right to vote' and 'are to be elected to office,' and Captain Heaton says; are to have the privilege of marrying his daughters. By the way Captain, is there so much danger of this as to require a law prohibiting it! The be decided in this fall election, and that Gov. WALKER. as jurors, and hold office! The Wall Street Panic.

(From the Cincinnatii Commercial.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 25, 1857.

EDS. COW.:—The effect of the Trust Company failure on Wall street was wonderful.

The losses of individuals therefrom, was little spoken of, although the disappointments of that kind were numerous and heavy.

The most observable feeling seemed to be that of insecurity and fright.

It was common to hear the remark, "wee would as soon have looked for a failure of the Bark of England."
